

Test for Lesson 4 & 5 – WTN University Worldviews 101
The Family Action Council of Tennessee

1. Theism holds that God is the creator, distinct from his creation, and sustains his creation day-to-day. True False
2. The Deism attributed to some of our founding fathers is like atheism in that both insist there is no moral order to the universe. True False
3. Which of the founding fathers held up as an example of deistic bent of our founding father made this statement during the constitutional convention in 1787: "Sir, a long time and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth that God governs in the affairs of men. If a sparrow cannot fall to the ground unseen by him, is it possible that an empire could arise without his aid?" Thomas Jefferson Benjamin Franklin Benjamin Rush John Adams
4. The three world religions associated with theism are: Islam, Judaism, and Christianity.
5. This idea that God is distinct from the creation is an aspect of what theists mean when they say God is "holy." True False
6. In Islam, the idea that God is distinct from his creation means that all contact between man and God is cut off – there's no co-mingling of spirit and matter that allows for a personal relationship with God. True False
7. In Judaism and Christianity man relates to God via a covenant. True False
8. A worldview explains our relationship to God, fellow man, and nature.
9. Naturalism and transcendentalism are both monistic worldviews/philosophies. True False
10. Naturalistic evolution is consistent with a monistic worldview/philosophy. True False